

Objectives of the Association

- a. to advance speech science and technology in academic institutions and in industrial and commercial organisations
- b. to promote the research in and application of speech science and technology in accordance with an accepted code of ethics
- c. to further the professional development of those engaged in speech science and technology
- d. to provide a national and international forum for the discussion of issues related to speech science and technology
- e. to inform academic institutions, industrial, commercial and Government organisations, and the general public on issues related to speech science and technology
- f. to publish periodically or occasionally such materials which advance speech science and technology
- g. to hold a biennial international conference on speech science and technology; and
- h. to further the liaison and cooperation with other organisations which have similar objects